

Curriculum Vitae – Irina Antonijevic, MD, PhD

Personal Data

Irina Antonijevic, MD, PhD, was born in Munich in 1965. She lives with her husband in the USA (Boston) since 2005. Since 6 August 2012, she is a member of the Supervisory Board of 4SC AG.

Occupation

Since 2024 Trace Neuroscience, Inc., South San Francisco, CA, USA Chief Medical Officer

Beruflicher Werdegang

- 2022 – 2024 EveryONE Medicines, Inc., Boston, MA, USA
Chief Medical Officer
- 2019 – 2022 Triplet Therapeutics, Inc., Cambridge, MA, USA
Chief Medical Officer, Head of R&D
- 2018 - 2019 Wave Life Sciences USA, Inc., Cambridge, MA, USA
VP Translational Medicine and Development
- 2016 - 2017 vasopharm GmbH, Würzburg, Germany
Chief Medical Officer
- 2011 - 2016 Sanofi Genzyme, Cambridge, MA, USA
Global Head Early Development Multiple Sclerosis, Neurology and Ophthalmology
- 2009 - 2010 CHDI Foundation (non-profit biotech), Princeton, NJ, USA
Medical director clinical development
- 2005 - 2009 Lundbeck Research USA, Paramus, NJ, USA
Director translational research
- 2001 - 2005 Schering AG, Berlin, Germany
Core clinician, clinical development CNS
- 2004 Charité, Universitätsmedizin, Berlin, Germany
Habilitation in psychiatry
- 1995 - 2001 Max Planck Institute of Psychiatry, Munich, Germany
Residency in psychiatry and neurology (board certification in psychiatry in 2000)
- 1992 - 1995 University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh, UK
Research assistant and PhD thesis
- 1991-1992 Max Planck Institute of Neurobiology, Martinsried, Germany
Research assistant pathophysiology of pain and opioid therapeutics

Education

- 1995 - 2001 Residency (psychiatry and neurology), Max Planck Institute of Psychiatry, Munich
- 1995 University of Edinburgh, UK
Doctoral thesis (Doctor of Philosophy = Dr. rer. nat.) in neurophysiology

- 1992 Technical University Munich and Max Planck Institute for Psychiatry, Munich
Doctoral thesis (human medicine: Dr. med.) in neuroendocrinology
- 1984 - 1991 Technical University Munich and University Regensburg
Study of human medicine (degree doctor (MD); Approbation 1993)

Other supervisory board memberships or non-executive mandates

Biohaven Pharmaceuticals, Inc., New Haven, CT USA Non-Executive Director
 veriNOS pharmaceuticals GmbH, Wuerzburg, Germany Non-Executive Director

Relevant knowledge, skills and experience

Dr Antonijevic has more than 20 years of drug development experience including a range of therapeutic areas, such as Neuroscience, Intensive Care, Immunology, and Ophthalmology. Dr. Antonijevic has held increasing leadership positions in small and large, mostly global pharmaceutical and biotech organizations in Germany and the US. As a clinician scientist and drug developer she has extensive expertise in both pre-clinical and clinical development.